

Reasons

Since the modern manufacturing process is unknown to them, members, leaders, culture have been created by spiritual means. These gods are intended for the local and prophets of the cult maintain that the manufacturer gods of the non-native though malice or mistake. Thus, a characteristic feature of gang culture is the belief manufactured products to the cut members.

that spiritual agents will, at some future time, give much valuable and desirable indigenous people, but the foreigners have unfairly gained control of these objects straw. Believer may stage 'drills' and 'marches' with sticks for rifles and use military attempted construction of Western goods, such as radios made of nuts and Symbiotically with Christianity and modern Western society tend to be Notable examples of multiactivity include the setting up of mainstays, performed for the purpose of attracting the cargo.

incorporated into their rituals: for example, the use of crosses and grave markers.

airports, airplanes, offices, and dining rooms, as well as the fetishization style insignia and national insignia painted on their bodys to make them look like so/dieas, thereby treating the activities of Western military presence as rituals to be

